

Nationals stance on Greens – one down, two to go

Country Alliance's local candidate for the Upper House, Danny Lee, has congratulated the National Party for following Country Alliance in putting the Greens last at this year's state election.

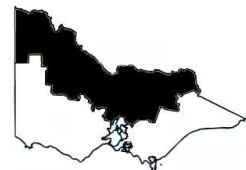

Country Alliance threw down the challenge to all major parties in opinion articles on Greens policies published in the Weekly Times and Herald Sun last month.

"It's a case of one down, two to go," he said.

"I call on the Liberal Party and the Labor Government to do the same"

"Victoria cannot afford to have the Greens in any position of influence in the next Parliament. Their policies will destroy rural and regional Victoria."
