Why you need to join us

A Herald Sun report on the swing against the government at the Altona by-election result shows that the Greens could hold the balance of power if the same thing happens at this year's state election in November.

These are some of the crazy policies they will push if they get their way.

Rapidly phasing out logging and extraction of all firewood and other wood products (such as sleepers and posts) from native forests and woodlands

Greens, biodiversity policy, 2010

Work towards removing criminal sanctions for personal drug use. ...funding heroin injection rooms.

Greens, tobacco, alcohol and illicit drugs policy 2010

Ending recreational hunting, abolishing rodeos, animal circuses, steeplechasing and displays of live animals.

Greens, animals policy, 2010

Bringing down a cap on the construction of new, publicly accessible car parks in existing urban areas, and increasing the land tax on large commercial car parks.

Greens, planning and transport policy 2010

Do you really want these policies in your community?
